

Gainful Employment Disclosures – 2019

Program Name Master of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine

This program is designed to be completed in 4 years.

This program will cost $81,167 if completed within normal time. There may be additional costs for living expenses. These costs were accurate at the time of posting, but may have changed.

Of the students who completed this program within normal time, the typical graduate leaves with $ 97,397 of debt.

Program meets licensure requirements in the following States: North Carolina. Graduates of the program are eligible to sit for NCCAOM Certification Exams. Many states, including North Carolina, use the NCCAOM Certification Exams as a requirement for licensure. Acupuncture licenses are regulated by individual states. Please visit <https://www.nccaom.org/state-licensure/> for more information on individual state regulations.

Program does not qualify students to sit for licensure exam in the following States: California

The following States do not have licensure requirements for this profession: South Dakota, Oklahoma, Alabama

For more information about graduation rates, loan repayment rates, and post-enrollment earnings about this institution and other postsecondary institutions please click here:

<https://collegescorecard.ed.gov/>